The Latest Issue of Facilities Manager Magazine: What You Need to Know on Sustaining Leadership

How does sustainability fit into your organization's strategic goals? How can you sustain excellence in our field through mentoring? How can we best define "sustainability" to know if our efforts are indeed "sustainable." The May/June issue of APPA's Facilities Manager magazine helps you answer these questions. Check out these feature articles:

Facility Management's Role in Organizational Sustainability

While the value of buildings and grounds can be calculated, college and university spaces have a greater intrinsic value far beyond the calculable. They hold memories and emotional significance for students, faculty, alumni, staff and the community. In sum, they represent an institution's ethos. Yet, in this era of constrained budgets, declining state support, and increasing tuition fees, institutions are assessing their limited resources and realizing that their space needs an effective management strategy. The experts in this highly charged session will discuss the challenges of space management, coming advancements, and best practices to embrace. Sponsored by:

SPECIAL PROGRAM OFFERINGS at APPA 2013
Celebrate our Emerging Professionals and Senior Facilities Officers

Emerging Professionals Summit

August 1, 2013

Recognizing the importance of expanding our Emerging Professionals ranks and allowing their ideas to flourish, APPA is thrilled to announce its first Emerging Professionals Summit, to take place August 1 at the Hyatt Regency Minneapolis in Minneapolis, MN. The 2013 Summit will provide a unique opportunity for emerging facilities professionals and students to engage with senior leaders in the educational facilities field. You'll be able to explore what the future of higher education will be in 2015 and beyond, share a conversation with past APPA Presidents in a fireside chat, and much more. If you consider yourself an emerging professional, this is an event not to miss. If you are one of our "more seasoned" educational facilities professionals, you can't afford not to send your emerging professionals to this summit. Our future rests on their shoulders and the opportunities we afford them today. Learn more.

Senior Facilities Officers Summit

August 1, 2013

APPA's Senior Facilities Officers Summit is back by popular demand. The program provides a unique opportunity to engage with leaders in the educational facilities field, one in which you will share information and develop critical strategies that will serve your institution for years to come. Programming for this year's summit will deliver sessions from invited experts on the importance of space management; massive open online courses, what are they and what impact will they have on facilities; and much more. This highly rated and thoughtfully constructed program is designed with input from leading facilities officers from learning institutions within APPA's own membership. Learn more.

APPA INFORMATION & RESEARCH

Thought Leaders Report 2012: Campus Space...An Asset and a Burden

The 2012 Thought Leaders Symposium, sponsored in part by DTZ, a UGL company, and Jacobs, identified major issues, trends, and recommendations related to the topic of space management and utilization in higher education. The report developed from the event presents opportunities to improve your space allocation and management strategy. It will help you:

- Align space management to the mission of the institution
- Make space one of your institution's top assets
- Change the culture of space
- Develop effective policies, processes, and organizational structures to manage space
- Implement a space inventory system to understand resources

- and identify needs
- Address space utilization by assembling credible data and adopting best practices

Access the insights of Campus Space...An Asset and a Burden. The report is free to APPA members; $15 for nonmembers.

Benchmarking & Organizational Change, second edition

Fully revised and updated from the classic best-seller of 2000, Benchmarking & Organizational Change will assist you in integrating your organization's technical, human, and economic aspects to help optimize your business and planning results. Author Mo Qayoumi, APPA Fellow and president of San Jose State University, helps organizations embrace rapid and perpetual change and practice the principles of effective benchmarking. Benchmarking will help you:

- Stimulate creativity across the enterprise
- Minimize or eliminate complacency and the superficial mindset
- Expand horizons beyond your industry
- Enhance sensitivity to external factors
- Align your business strategies to action plans
- Create an ongoing sense of urgency to remain competitive and, possibly, outpace your competition

University of Utah Residence Hall Receives LEED Gold

The University of Utah's newest residence hall recently received gold certification using Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design standards, making it the first LEED-certified university residence hall in Utah. The 167,000-square-foot Donna Garff Marriott Honors Residential Scholars Community exceeded minimum efficiency standards by more than 30 percent, resulting in $55,000 annual energy savings.
