2018 APPA Candidates Selected

The APPA Board of Directors has announced the slate of candidates for the 2018 APPA elections. Based upon the recommendations of the Nominating Committee, led by Immediate Past President Chuck Scott, the slate includes:

President-Elect

- Ruthann Manlet, University of Minnesota
- Shelton Riley, Texas Christian University

Vice President for Information and Research

- Dan Gearan, New England College
- David Handwork, Arkansas State University

Vice President for Professional Development

- Beth Clark, Penn State University
- Terri Willis, University of Colorado Boulder

Voting will open in mid-March and conclude in April. Ballot notifications will be sent to all APPA Primary Reps and to the Proxy identified for each member institution, who are eligible to vote in the election.

Many thanks to the nominating committee and to all who threw their hats into the ring. Congratulations to our candidates for APPA office!

Whitepaper: The Great Generational Shift

The Great Generational Shift

UPDATE 2018

According to a new whitepaper, up to six generations can be working side-by-side in today's workplace. Author and researcher Bruce Tulgan says, "The workforce is aging on one end of the spectrum and getting younger on the other. In the middle there is a gap, with the prime age workforce shrinking as an overall percentage of the workforce."
